

Press Release 7/21/08

Former Wake Assistant to Lead Veritas Football Program

Veritas Sports Academy has named former Wake Forest Assistant Coach, James Bell, as head coach of the Warrior football team. Bell was Defensive Coordinator for the Secondary Unit under a Jim Caldwell team that won the Aloha Bowl in 1999.

Bell has served as Head Football Coach at Taylor University and Jackson State University as well Defensive Coordinator at Indiana University, the University of Louisville, the University of North Texas, Northwest Missouri State University, the University of Central Arkansas and Lamar University.

Although Veritas Sports Academy will not begin playing football until the 2009 season, Bell will join Veritas this fall.

For more information contact Jim Beck, Sports Information Director